"I joined the Chamber seeking business connections. I definitely made those connections. More importantly, I made a group of friends that I wouldn't trade for the world. Chamber members genuinely care about one another and really strive to help businesses thrive. I'll be a member for life."

Matt Smallheer,

"Joining the O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce when I started my company 15 years ago seemed like the logical thing to do, and I was correct! Where else can a new business find an immediate connection with local companies dealing with similar problems and solutions on a daily basis? Over the years, the Chamber has provided invaluable networking opportunities for me to grow my business."
